Our own spotting choice: _____

The driver does not play, look at the sheet or keep score. Mark boxes when safely parked, or have a non-driving adult passenger manage them. Stay properly restrained; no reaching, leaning or passing objects. Pause if the game distracts anyone.

Six quiet passenger prompts

A passenger leads, with permission to pass or pause. Speak quietly. No sheets, objects or driver answers are needed for these prompts.

Choose a place

Would you choose a treehouse library or a submarine bakery?

Start a story

A rabbit has lost its hat. Add one short sentence.

Mystery animal

Think of a familiar animal. Others ask yes-or-no questions.

Silly shopping

What would you buy in a shop for clouds?

Opposite world

Imagine umbrellas that make rain. What happens next?

Five questions

Choose a familiar room or place and offer a helpful clue.

At a stop, we might: _____

Our pause signal: _____

The driver concentrates on driving. Do not ask them to judge, adjust music, handle a device or look at a game. Use a quiet independent option if passengers cannot lead without distracting the driver. Adults handle cutting; leave the page uncut if easier.
