Our reading notes

A book, a few pages, a reread or something shared aloud. Add a note when you want to remember it.

Name / names, if wanted: _____ Dates / period, if wanted: _____

When	Book / what we read	A word or picture to remember

Use a date, an occasion or no date. The same book can appear again. Note reading aloud, sharing, listening or reading independently in the last column if useful.

This is an optional home record. If school asks for its own diary or particular information, use the record they request.

One book to remember

Draw, write a few words or ask someone to write what you say. Use the parts you want.

Title / what we read: _____

Author / creator, if known: _____

A part I would like to draw:

One word, thought or question I want to keep

Something I would like to read or hear next

A short note or a drawing can be enough. There is no score to give and no requirement to finish the book before making a page.
